	In 2017 ICOM UK awarded seven travel bursaries, enabling six members to attend the ICOM-CC conference in Copenhagen and the International Association of Book and Paper Conservators (IADA) Symposium in Oslo.
	In addition, a new successful funding scheme was launched. ICOM UK secured funding from Heritage Without Borders (HWB) to run 2 – 3 rounds of a Greater Europe Travel Grant Scheme in 2017-18. To date, a total of ten grants have been awarded totalling c.£6,000.

ICOM UK also secured funding from the British Council to run a Global Travel Grant Scheme in 2017-18. In late 2017 a total of six grants were awarded totalling £7,200.

Management expenses have increased in significant part due to the increased role of the Executive Director, this reflects the increasing size and complexity of the organisation and still represents excellent value for money.

Accountant audit, tax return and admin fees for 2016 were £2,334
