1. Key updates

Importing and exporting

NEW Full customs controls – actions for EU businesses trading with the UK: updated 10/01

NEW Changes coming into force on 1 January

- Full custom controls are now in place.
- EU based businesses have new rules to follow when moving goods to Great Britain (England, Scotland or Wales).
- There are different rules in place for moving goods between the EU and Northern Ireland.
- The changes came into force on 1 January 2022 for imports from the EU (except Ireland) to Great Britain include:
 - full customs import declarations are needed for all goods at the time you or your courier/freight forwarder bring them into Great Britain
 - customs controls at all ports and other border locations
 - you may need a suppliers' declaration proving the origin of your goods (either UK or EU) if you're using the zero tariffs agreed in the UK's trade deal with the EU
 - commodity codes, which are used to classify your goods for customs declarations, are changing.

NEW Goods leaving GB at ports using Goods Vehicle Management Services: updated 23/12

NEW Customs Information Paper 2: updated 23/12

NEW Making a full export declaration: updated 31/12

- From 1 January 2022, exports between GB and the EU are subject to full customs controls.
- This means that goods must be presented to customs and the export declarations must be entered into HMRC systems to decide if any further physical checks are required.
- If your goods move through a port using the Goods Vehicle Movement Service (GVMS), you need to enter 'RRS01' in box 44 for CHIEF or Data Element 2/2 for the Customs Declaration Service. If you do not, GVMS will not be able to validate it on the submitted Goods Movement Reference (GMR).

Moving goods

NEW Moving goods from the EU to Great Britain: updated 31/12

Keep your business moving: register for Goods Vehicle Movement Service: updated 31/12

Leaflets for hauliers: new rules for moving goods between the EU and GB: updated 31/12

- Information for haulier managers and drivers who move goods between the EU and Great Britain to explain the new rules they must follow and how to prepare for these changes.

Visiting the UK and EU

NEW Travel to England from another country during coronavirus: updated 09/01

Coronavirus testing before you travel to England: updated 07/01

- Before you travel to England you must:
 - book and pay for a COVID-19 test – to be taken after you arrive in England
 - complete a passenger locator form – to be completed in the 48 hours before you arrive in England
- If you qualify as fully vaccinated for travel to England, you can choose to take a lateral flow test instead of a PCR test after you arrive in England. If you take a lateral flow test and test positive, you will need to self-isolate and take a free confirmatory PCR test.
- If you're in England for less than 2 days, you still need to book and pay for a day 2 test. .
- You do not need to take a COVID-19 test before you travel to England, or quarantine when you arrive in England.

2. EU-UK Trade and Cooperation Agreement

Summary: The UK's new relationship with the EU: updated 02/07

- The UK has left the EU and the transition period has now ended.

EU-UK Trade and Cooperation Agreement

Brexit checker: new rules are here

EU-UK Trade and Cooperation Agreement

EU-UK trade and cooperation agreement: Council adopts decision on conclusion: 29/04

Summary explainer

- No tariffs or quotas on the movement of goods we produce between the UK and the EU.
- The first time the EU has agreed a zero tariff zero quota deal with any other trading partner.
- No import duties or taxes on goods temporarily admitted for display at exhibitions and/or for cultural purposes.
- Provisions to support trade in services (including financial services and legal services).
- The Agreement includes commitments on short-term business visitors; intra-corporate transferees; contractual service suppliers; and independent professionals.
- This includes the ability for UK short-term business visitors to travel to the EU for 90 days in any 180-day month period for specific activities, set out in the annex (page 745).
- Provisions for short term business visitors are on page 89 of the Agreement, and for Contractual Service Suppliers and Independent Professionals on page 90, with the list of permitted activities is on page 745 (STBV), page 749 (CSS), and page 751 (IP).

Customs intermediaries

- Customs intermediaries can make customs declarations for your business.
- Search the register of customs agents and fast parcel operators: updated 10/01
- If you get an intermediary, you will still:
 - be responsible for paying any taxes or duties owed
 - be responsible for providing details about your transactions to your intermediary
 - need to apply for an EORI number. An intermediary can't apply for an EORI on your behalf and they will need this to complete your customs declarations. It takes 5 to 10 minutes to apply and you will normally receive it in under a week.
- For more information, you can:
 - watch videos, sign up for email alerts and register for webinars
 - watch short films about how a customs agent or intermediary can help you and getting someone to deal with customs for you – how freight forwarders can help.

- VAT and overseas goods sold directly to customers in the UK: updated 14/05
- VAT on the goods you export: updated 23/11

- If you sell, send or transfer goods out of the UK you do not normally need to charge VAT on them in the UK. You can zero-rate most exports from:
 - Great Britain to a destination outside the UK
 - Northern Ireland to a destination outside the UK and EU.
- If you incorrectly charge UK VAT on exports of goods, your customers may also have to pay VAT in the country where the goods are imported.
- Different rules may apply in different countries. Therefore, it's important that you understand the import VAT rules of each EU country that you sell to.

Rules of Origin

- Rules of Origin for goods moving between the UK and the EU: updated 06/10
