| Subject | Report on ICOM UK Bursaries 2021 - 2022 |
| Author | Nigel Sadler, Head of the Bursary Committee |
| Report | Background: ICOM-UK provides up to £5000 a year to be distributed through the bursary scheme. These are awarded to fit into our financial year and runs from October 1st 2021-September 31st 2022. Following the COVID pandemic when possible international travel was curtailed and there was no prospect of international conferences in person, 2021-2022 saw the return to normality. Unfortunately, The COVID pandemic has played havoc with international conferences and this is reflected by our ability to award any grants. As international travel became restricted conferences were either cancelled, postponed or went online. 2022 was also the year for the ICOM Triennial in Prague and, as in other triennial years, we had more applications for bursaries than we had money for. In 2021-22 we awarded six Bursaries to attend the ICOM Triennial in Prague: Stephanie de Roemer, Conservator Sculpture and installation Art at Glasgowlife/ Glasgow Museums Gordon Mckenna, Collections Trust Christiana Kazakou, PHD student Plymouth University Nan Xia, Student at University of Glasgow Yen Ting Lin, Student at University of Glasgow Sorcha Ni Foghluda, Freelancer All of these were awarded £750 each which meant ICOM-UK awarded £4500 to send 6 delegates to the ICOM Triennial. However some of the delegates did not claim the full amount when submitting their expenses On top of these bursaries we also awarded the following bursary: |
